Redeploying units must contact the servicing APO before leaving and at the home station location upon arrival. Directory service continues for 60 days after redeployment. All mail is currently being moved forward to the theater APOs and distributed to units. The CENTCOM EA in coordination with Military Postal Service Agency MPSA determines curtailment of services. Free mail remains in effect. Use of Military Postal Service MPS mail only applies to APO mail within the theater. Policy and procedures stated in this appendix apply to Active Army and Reserve Component RC soldiers, DOD Civilians, and Contractor personnel. Ensure clerks are trained and issued DD Form 285 Appointment of Military Postal Clerk, Unit Mail Clerk, Mail Orderly cards three copies before deployment. The mail clerk will retain one copy, the second copy will remain in the deployed unit mailroom, and the third copy will be hand carried to the contingency APO. The correct mailing address consists of only the name, unit or element, and APO number. Soldiers receiving mail directly from USPS should complete a change of address card with their servicing Post Office. During personnel readiness processing, deploying personnel will complete applicable forms below and provide them to the home station unit mail clerks. Ensure soldiers complete a DA Form 3955 when moving from one base camp to another for more than 30 days. Official shipments are exempt from this prohibition. Mail must be addressed to an individual or job title. This restriction does not apply to firearms mailed to or by official U.S. government agencies. It allows deployed personnel to communicate via mail free of charge. No merchandise allowed. Family members are not entitled to this benefit and if mailing from Hawaii, USPS Zone 8 rate will apply Hawaii to APO New York Address. Preaddressed labels should be used to the greatest extent possible, but handwriting forwarding addresses is permissible provided the old address has been lined out.

A facing label will be attached to the top of each bundle showing the correct forwarding address. Mail will be consolidated and bagged by battalion. All bags must have slide labels showing the proper forwarding address. Units will ensure proper accountability and adequate storage space is available for storing packages that cannot be forwarded.
